NOTICE OF SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

31. A notice of meeting of the Company's Members shall specify:
- (i) the place, the day and the time of the meeting (and, if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);
 - (ii) the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting;
 - (iii) if applicable, that a Special Resolution is to be proposed and the words of the proposed resolution; and
 - (iv) such other information as is required by section 249L of the Act.
32. The Company may hold a meeting of its Members at two or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.
33. Subject to the provisions of the Act relating to agreements for shorter notice, at least 21 days notice must be given of a meeting of the Company's Members.
34. (i) Notice of every meeting of the Company's Members shall be given in the manner authorised by clause 94 to:
- (a) every Member and to every Director; and
 - (b) the auditor for the time being of the Company.
- (ii) No other person is entitled to receive notices of meetings of the Company's Members.

CHAIRMAN OF SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

35. (i) The Chairman of the Board shall preside as Chairman at every special general meeting.
- (ii) If there is no Chairman or the Chairman is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act for all or part of the meeting, the Deputy Chairman will be the Chairman.
- (iii) If the Deputy Chairman is not present or is present but is unwilling to act for all or part of the meeting, the Members present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting (or part of it).

QUORUM FOR SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

36. (i) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Company's Members unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.

- (ii) A quorum of Members for a meeting is fifteen (15) Members or a number equal to half of the registered Members plus one (and if that number is not a whole number then the nearest whole number above), whichever is the lesser.
- (iii) For the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present, a person attending as a proxy, or as representing a body corporate that is a Member, shall be deemed to be a Member.

ADJOURNMENT OF SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

37. If a quorum is not present within fifteen (15) minutes from the time appointed for the meeting:
- (i) where the meeting was convened upon the request of Members - the meeting shall be dissolved; or
 - (ii) in any other case:
 - (a) the meeting stands adjourned to such day, and at such time and place, as the Directors determine or, if no determination is made by the Directors, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and

VOTING AT SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

39. (i) At any meeting of the Company's Members a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded (before a vote is taken or immediately after the declaration of the result of the show of hands) by at least two thirds of the Members present in person or by proxy.
- (ii) Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

- (iii) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
40. (i) If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such a manner as the Chairman directs and unless the meeting is adjourned, the result of the poll will be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (ii) A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately.
41. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting of the Company's Members at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded will have a casting vote in addition to any vote the Chairman may have in the capacity as a Member.
42. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Member:
- (i) at meetings of the Company's Members or classes of Members each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or attorney or representative; and
 - (ii) on a show of hands every person present who is a Member or a proxy or representative of a Member has one vote, and on a poll every person present in person or by proxy or attorney or representative has one vote.
43. If the membership is held jointly and more than one such joint Member votes, only the vote of the Member whose name appears first in the Register of Members counts.
44. If a Member is of unsound mind or is a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health, his or her committee or trustee or such other person as properly has the management of his or her estate may exercise any rights of the Member in relation to a meeting of the Company's Members as if the committee, trustee or other person were the Member.
45. A Member is not entitled to vote at a meeting of the Company's Members unless all sums presently payable by him or her in respect of the Company have been paid.
46. (i) An objection may be raised to the qualification of a voter only at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered.
- (ii) Any such objection shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting of the Company's Members, whose decision is final.
- (iii) A vote not disallowed pursuant to such an objection is valid for all purposes.

PROXIES

47. A Member of the Company who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of the Company's Members may appoint a person (whether or not a Member of the Company) as the Member's proxy to attend and vote for the Member at the meeting.

(i) An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his or her attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under seal or executed in accordance with the Act or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised.
- (ii) An instrument appointing a proxy may specify the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where an instrument of proxy so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote in the resolution except as specified in the instrument.
- (iii) An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
49. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or in a form that is as similar to the following form as the circumstances allow:

This form is to be used * in favour of / * against the resolution

SIGNED this day of, 20..

50. An instrument appointing a proxy shall not be treated as valid unless the instrument and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which the instrument is signed or a copy of that power or authority certified by a solicitor or a notary public, is or are deposited not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, at the registered office of the Company or at such other place in Australia as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting.
51. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or of a power of attorney is valid notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal, the revocation of the instrument (or of the authority under which the instrument was executed) or of the power, providing no intimation in writing of the death, unsoundness of mind or revocation was made before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used or the power is exercised.

DIRECTORS

APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

52. The number of the Directors shall be not less than five (5) and not more than eleven (11).
53. The Company may from time to time by resolution passed at a special general meeting fix the number of Directors or increase or reduce the number of Directors (but so that the number shall be not less than five and not more than eleven) and may also determine in what rotation (if any) the increased or reduced number is to go out of office.
54. The Company may from time to time by resolution passed at a special general meeting appoint a Member to be a Director of the Company. The resolution may specify the period during which the Director is to hold office and if it does so specify the Director will cease to hold office at the expiration of that period but will be eligible for reappointment. If the Members' resolution does not specify the term of the Director's appointment, the Director will hold office in accordance with clause 63.
55. A Director of the Board must have attained the age 18 years and must have suitable qualifications, skills and experience to discharge the function of a Member of the Board as determined by the Board from time to time.
56. In the event of a vacancy or vacancies in the office of a Director or offices of Directors, the remaining Directors may act but, if the number of remaining Directors is not sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting of Directors, they may act only for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to a number sufficient to constitute such a quorum or of convening a meeting of the Company's Members for that purpose.
57. (i) The Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to:
- (a) appoint a new Director to fill any casual vacancy; and
 - (b) appoint additional Directors.
- (ii) Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following Annual General Meeting of the Company and shall then be eligible for election but shall not then be taken into account in determining the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.
58. It shall be necessary for a Director to be a Member of the Company by way of qualification.
59. No current employee of the Company, nor a Member who has been an employee of the Company or the former incorporated association known as Nadrasca Inc in the previous two years shall be eligible for election or appointment to the office of Director, provided however that the Chief Executive Officer shall be eligible for election or appointment to the office of Director.
60. The Company may from time to time by resolution passed at a special general meeting remove any Director.
61. In addition to the circumstances in which the office of a Director becomes vacant by virtue of the Act, the office of a Director becomes vacant if the Director:

- (iii) is absent for three (3) consecutive meetings of the Board without prior approval from the Directors;

DEFECTS IN APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

62. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director are, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of a person to be a Director or a Member of the committee, or to act as a Director, or that person so appointed was disqualified, as valid as if the person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director or to be a Member of the committee.

ROTATION OF DIRECTORS

63. With the exception of the Chief Executive Officer, the following provisions shall apply to all the Directors:
- (i) At every Annual General Meeting those Directors who have been in office for three years or until the third Annual General Meeting following such Directors' appointment (whichever is the longer) shall retire.
 - (ii) Any retiring Director is eligible for re-election to the Board with the consent of that Director and, to avoid doubt, paragraph (v) of this clause does not apply to the election of a retiring Director.
 - (iii) The Company at any special general meeting at which any Directors retire in manner aforesaid may fill up the vacated office by electing a like number of persons to be Directors and may fill up any other vacancies.
 - (iv) Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company in a special general meeting may at any time by ordinary resolution remove any appointed or elected Director before the expiration of such Director's period of office and, if so desired, elect another person in such Director's stead. The person so elected shall hold office during such time only as the Director in whose place such Director is elected would have held office if such Director had not been removed.
 - (v) No person (except for a retiring Director) shall be eligible for election to the office of Director at any special general meeting unless such Director or some other Member intending to propose such Director has, at least fourteen (14) clear days before the meeting, left at the registered office of the Company a notice in writing duly signed by the nominee giving such Director's consent to the nomination and signifying such Director's candidature or the intention of such Member to propose him or her or unless such Director has been recommended by the Board for election and notice in writing of such recommendation has been left at the registered office of the Company at least fourteen (14) clear days before the meeting. Notice of every candidate for the position of Director shall be served on Members at least seven (7) days before the meeting at which the election is to take place.

REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

64. The Directors will be remunerated at the Company's discretion and any remuneration paid by the Company will be determined in accordance with reasonable industry terms.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

65. (i) Subject to the Act and to any other provision of this Constitution, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors, and the Company may pay all expenses incurred by the Directors in doing so.
- (ii) Without limiting the generality of the preceding paragraph, the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, to charge any property or business of the Company or give any other security for a debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any other person.
66. (i) The Directors may, by power of attorney, appoint any person or persons (either by name or by reference to position or office held) to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purposes, with such powers, authorities and discretions (being powers, authorities and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Directors), for such period and subject to such conditions as they think fit.
